MAXCAP GROUP APPOINTS NEW STATE DIRECTOR - NSW

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, 9 December 2020 – MaxCap Group, Australasia’s leading manager of commercial real estate (CRE) Investment, today announced the appointment of David Oudshoorn to the position of State Director - NSW.

David will be based in Sydney with a focus on spearheading the future growth of MaxCap’s NSW and ACT business. He is primarily responsible for the origination and execution of structured real estate finance deals and developing relationships with borrowers, in addition to supporting capital raising activity with both private and institutional investor clients.

“MaxCap has a great presence and track record in an increasingly important finance market and I’m very pleased to be leading the NSW/ACT business. Our continued growth and expansion in NSW and ACT is an important component of an exciting future for the business.” Mr Oudshoorn said.

He has more than 15 years’ industry experience in investment and development finance. David joins MaxCap from Qualitas where he was a Senior Director with responsibility for driving their debt and equity business in NSW. Prior to Qualitas, he held senior roles within ANZ’s Institutional Property Group in Sydney and Melbourne along with a number of years at Royal Bank of Scotland in London.

“David has extensive industry experience and a successful track record in the domestic and offshore market. His market, asset knowledge and broad institutional network will bolster our expansion and market penetration in NSW and ACT. We are delighted to be able to continue to attract people of his calibre to MaxCap,” said Brae Sokolski Co- Founder MaxCap Group.
