MaxCap continues to expand its team with new hires.

Melbourne – 31 January 2023 – MaxCap Group Australia’s leading commercial real estate investment Manager has today announced three new appointments to its team.

Haley Devine has joined as Director, Capital (Wealth Management) responsible for increasing discretionary funds under management by executing product and relationship management strategies with a focus on wealth managers and distribution platforms. Haley joins MaxCap from Wingate and previously worked for Vanguard Investments in distribution sales covering broking, private wealth and research houses. Before this she spent 14 years in London working for Citi, Goldman Sachs and HSBC in various sales and client management roles. She reports to Rob Hattersley, Group Head of Capital and is based in Melbourne.

Josh Periera has joined as Investment Director. Based in Melbourne, he will focus on relationship management of existing asset owner and developer clients and origination and execution of real estate transactions. Josh joins MaxCap from a 14-year career at NAB in corporate banking specialising in commercial real estate, construction and healthcare. Prior to NAB he worked for KPMG for four years in Audit and Advisory with a financial services focus. He will report to State Investment Director, Victoria Johnny Woodhouse.

Scott Robertson has been appointed as an Associate Director Construction Risk. Based in Sydney, he will deliver specialised construction advisory, approval, and management services throughout the entire life cycle of real estate loans. Scott joins from NAB where he spent nine years in various departments (Construction Risk, Credit, and Investment), his most recent role as a Senior Business Banking Manager. Prior to NAB, he spent five years at Commercial Industrial Property as contracts administrator and in a construction company as project manager. He will report to Royston Toh, Head of Construction Risk.

Commenting on the appointments, Wayne Lasky MaxCap’s Executive Chairman said: “We are thrilled to have Haley, Josh and Scott join the MaxCap team. Their calibre and experience will strengthen our wealth management, investment and risk teams respectively.”
